EVE-OF-FINAL RALLY

Friday 18 May 2007 at 6 p.m. for 6.45 p.m.

Returns to London at the prestigious Emirates Stadium Ashburton Grove

Could all ABSs please bring this event to the attention of their members?

After 6 years at the Millennium Stadium in Cardiff, the FA Cup Final is finally returning to its spiritual home of Wembley Stadium. The Eve-of-Final Rally returns to London, and we are delighted to announce that this will be held at the Emirates Stadium, the home of Arsenal Football Club. It promises to be a momentous homecoming.

The Rally honours the FA Cup Final Referee and his team. It is a tribute paid to them by their fellow referees to recognise their achievement. Everybody will get a chance to mingle with the match officials and VIPs before the formalities begin and will receive a souvenir programme autographed by the FA Cup Final officials. We are delighted that Keith Hackett, General Manager of the PGMOL, will be the Guest Speaker.

We say a big 'thank you' to our colleagues in Cardiff Society who have kept the show going so well during the FA's exile in Wales and expect that this year we will combine the best of past rallies in London with the freshness our Welsh friends brought to the event.

Tickets for this event are now on sale at £12.50 each. They can be ordered by individuals or in bulk by ABSs. For security and catering needs, admission will be by pre-paid ticket only.

Please complete and return the slip below with a cheque payable to "The RA" for the appropriate amount. Demand is expected to be high, so we recommend early application, which will be on a "first come/first served" basis, to avoid disappointment.
